Notes:
1. You must be classified by your school district as being in a “leadership role”
2. Agreement that your school district agrees to “support” you in this program (please check with your HR department for more information).
3. Hold a master’s degree in educational leadership, OR current Georgia leadership certification (L), OR complete an online six (6) hour PSC-approved “leadership preservice.” Have a minimum of four (4) years of teaching or administrative experience

International Students (Visa and Green Card holders) for additional requirements see: http://www.kennesaw.edu/graduate/admissions/international_admissions.php

Final admission decisions may be based on a combination of factors, including academic degrees and records, the statement of purpose, letters of recommendation, test scores, and relevant work experience. Also considered is the appropriateness of the applicant’s goals to the degree program in which they are interested and to the research interests of the program’s faculty. In addition, consideration may be given to how the applicant’s background and life experience would contribute significantly to an educationally beneficial mix of students.

Candidate’s Leadership Role in School: _________________________________________________

The Performance-Based Educational Leadership Certification Program complies with the Professional Standards Commission requirements for developing educational leaders.

District Commitment:
Leader Candidates accepted into the Performance-Based Educational Leadership Certification Program must have a commitment from the system and building level to provide support as indicated in the University/School System Partnership for the Development of Educational Leaders. Each candidate’s residency will be supervised by a Leader Candidate Support Team (LCST) comprised of the candidate, the university supervisor, a trained and qualified coach provided by the university, and a mentor from the building or system level.

District/School Mentor Commitment:
The mentor is a supervisor/building administrator or system designee who provides guidance, knowledge, opportunities to lead, and advice on an ongoing and regular basis throughout the program of study. The mentor serves as a member of the Leader Candidate Support Team that oversees the development and evaluation of the candidate’s performance. The team will meet every semester during the residency period to create with the candidate the Individual Induction Plan, establish observation experiences, evaluate progress and establish areas of need, and determine if the residency requirements have been satisfactorily met. The mentor will provide 8-12 hours of support per semester by guiding the Leader Candidate in applying the knowledge and skills specified in the Induction Plan and by observing the candidate’s performance and providing feedback.

Leader Candidate Responsibility:
The candidate is required to obtain an agreement from a supervisor/building administrator or system designee to serve as mentor and fulfill the responsibilities outlined above.
